Shozu Cherry Blossom

Azuma Higan Cherry Tree which is over 300 years old. It is also praised in Minakami Tsutomu's novel "Sakuramori".

The stone wall of Kaizu Beach

Stone wall built in 1703 by Nishi Yoichizaemon, the prefectural governor, out of sympathy because of the serious harm caused to building lots by rain and wind.

Lakeside Terrace

The view of Lake Biwa's scenery is the best from here. The cherry blossoms of Kaizu-Osaki can be seen, too.

Makino Sunny Beach

Shallow beach with white sand dotted with pine trees stretching across 1 km. It is also popular as the campground with swimming facilities offering the cleanest water of the Okubiwako region!

Toilet facilities

During the cherry blossom viewing season, portable toilets are installed (without hand-washing facilities). Please note that they are expected to be crowded.
